Item 2 Education Background and Business Experience

James Joseph Roman, Jr. was born in 1962. Mr. Roman graduated from La Salle University, with a degree in Business Administration in 1984. He graduated from Widener University, with a MS degree in Taxation in 1991. Mr. Roman has been a Managing Member of Main Street Financial Life Advisors, LLC[®] since May 1999. He has also been a Managing Member of Roman & Kulpa, LLC since January 2007. and an investment adviser representative of Carson Partners (a division of CWM, LLC) since February 2021.

Mr. Roman has held the designation of Certified Public Accountant ("CPA") since 1990. CPAs are licensed and regulated by their state boards of accountancy. While state laws and regulations vary, the education, experience and testing requirements for licensure as a CPA generally include minimum college education (typically 150 credit hours with at least a baccalaureate degree and a concentration in accounting), minimum experience levels (most states require at least one year of experience providing services that involve the use of accounting, attest, compilation, management advisory, financial advisory, tax or consulting skills, all of which must be achieved under the supervision of or verification by a CPA), and successful passage of the Uniform CPA Examination. In order to maintain a CPA license, states generally require the completion of 40 hours of continuing professional education (CPE) each year (or 80 hours over a two-year period or 120 hours over a three year period). Additionally, all American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) members are required to follow a rigorous Code of Professional Conduct which requires that they act with integrity, objectivity, due care, competence, fully disclose any conflicts of interest (and obtain client consent if a conflict exists), maintain client confidentiality, disclose to the client any commission or referral fees, and serve the public interest when providing financial services. In addition to the Code of Professional Conduct, AICPA members who provide personal financial planning services are required to follow the Statement on Standards in Personal Financial Planning Services (SSPFPS).

Mr. Roman has been designated as a Personal Financial Specialist (“PFS”) since 1999. The PFS credential demonstrates that an individual has met the minimum education, experience and testing required of a CPA in addition to a minimum level of expertise in personal financial planning. To attain the PFS credential, a candidate must hold an unrevoked CPA license, certificate, or permit, none of which are in inactive status; fulfill 3,000 hours of personal financial planning business experience; complete 75 hours of personal financial planning CPE credits; pass a comprehensive financial planning exam and be an active member of the AICPA. A PFS credential holder is required to adhere to AICPA’s Code of Professional Conduct and the Statement on Standards in Personal Financial Planning Services, when providing personal financial planning services. To maintain their PFS credential, the recipient must complete 60 hours of financial planning CPE credits every three years. The PFS credential is administered through the AICPA.

Item 4 Other Business Activities

- A. Other Investment Adviser. Mr. Sulpizio in his individual capacity, is a dually registered investment adviser representative of the Registrant and Innovative Investment Fiduciaries, LLC, a New Jersey State registered investment adviser. Mr. Sulpizio may recommend the services of Main Street Financial Life Advisors, LLC® for investment management or financial planning services. The Registrant's Chief Compliance Officer, J. Joseph Roman, remains available to address any questions that a client or prospective client may have regarding the above conflict of interest.
- B. Other Business: Innovative Benefit Planning, LLC. Mr. Sulpizio is the owner of Innovative Benefit Planning LLC, an employee benefit planning and financial services company, and may provide 401K administrative services in that separate and individual capacity Conflict of Interest: The recommendation by Registrant that a client use the administrative services of Innovative Benefit Planning LLC presents a conflict of interest, as the receipt of fees may provide an incentive to recommend the services of Innovative Benefit Planning, LLC based on fees received, rather than on a particular client's need. No client is under any obligation to use the services of Innovative Benefit Planning LLC. The Registrant's Chief Compliance Officer, J. Joseph Roman, remains available to address any questions that a client or prospective client may have regarding the above conflict of interest.

Licensed Insurance Agent. Mr. Sulpizio, in his individual capacity, is a licensed insurance agent, and may recommend the purchase of certain insurance-related products on a commission basis. Clients can engage Mr. Sulpizio to purchase insurance products on a commission basis.

Conflict of Interest: The recommendation by Mr. Sulpizio that a client purchase an insurance commission product presents a conflict of interest, as the receipt of commissions may provide an incentive to recommend insurance products based on commissions to be received, rather than on a particular client's need. No client is under any obligation to purchase any insurance commission products from Mr. Sulpizio. Clients are reminded that they may purchase insurance products recommended by Mr. Sulpizio through other, non-affiliated insurance agents. The Registrant's Chief Compliance Officer, J. Joseph Roman, remains available to address any questions that a client or prospective client may have regarding the above conflict of interest.

Item 5 Additional Compensation

Mr. Sulpizio's annual compensation is based, in part, on the amount of assets under management that Mr. Sulpizio introduces to the Registrant. Accordingly, Mr. Sulpizio has a conflict of interest for recommending the Registrant to clients for investment advisory services, as the recommendation could be made on the basis of compensation to be received, rather than on a client or prospective client's best interests.

Item 6 Supervision

The Registrant provides investment advisory and supervisory services in accordance with the Registrant's policies and procedures manual. The primary purpose of the Registrant's Rule 206(4)-7 policies and procedures is to comply with the supervision requirements of Section 203(e)(6) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (the "Act"). Additional information about Joel Matthew Davis is available on the SEC's website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.

Item 2 Education Background and Business Experience

Joel Matthew Davis was born in 1983. Mr. Davis graduated from the University of Minnesota at Twin Cities in 2017, with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science. Mr. Davis has been employed by Main Street Financial Life Advisors, LLC[®] since October 2019 and is currently an associate wealth advisor. From November 2016 to October 2019, Mr. Davis was a registered representative at Wells Fargo Clearing Services, LLC and from March 2016 to October 2019, he was also a regional bank private banker at Wells Fargo Bank NA. From June 2014 to November 2016, Mr. Davis was a registered representative at Wells Fargo Advisors, LLC and from December 2012 to March 2016, Mr. Davis was a personal banker at Wells Fargo Bank NA.

Mr. Davis is certified for financial planning services in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. ("CFP Board"). Therefore, he may refer to himself as a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER[™] professional or a CFP[®] professional, and he may use these and CFP

Board's other certification marks (the "CFP Board Certification Marks"). The CFP® certification is voluntary. No federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold the CFP® certification. You may find more information about the CFP® certification at www.cfp.net.

CFP® professionals have met CFP Board's high standards for education, examination, experience, and ethics. To become a CFP® professional, an individual must fulfill the following requirements:

- Education – Earn a bachelor's degree or higher from an accredited college or university and complete CFP Board-approved coursework at a college or university through a CFP Board Registered Program. The coursework covers the financial planning subject areas CFP Board has determined are necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, as well as a comprehensive financial plan development capstone course. A candidate may satisfy some of the coursework requirement through other qualifying credentials.
- Examination – Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination is designed to assess an individual's ability to integrate and apply a broad base of financial planning knowledge in the context of real-life financial planning situations.
- Experience – Complete 6,000 hours of professional experience related to the personal financial planning process, or 4,000 hours of apprenticeship experience that meets additional requirements.
- Ethics – Satisfy the Fitness Standards for Candidates for CFP® Certification and Former CFP® Professionals Seeking Reinstatement and agree to be bound by CFP Board's Code of Ethics and Standards of Conduct ("Code and Standards"), which sets forth the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements to remain certified and maintain the right to continue to use the CFP Board Certification Marks:

- Ethics – Commit to complying with CFP Board's Code and Standards. This includes a commitment to CFP Board, as part of the certification, to act as a fiduciary, and therefore, act in the best interests of the client, at all times when providing financial advice and financial planning. CFP Board may sanction a CFP® professional who does not abide by this commitment, but CFP Board does not guarantee a CFP® professional's services. A client who seeks a similar commitment should obtain a written engagement that includes a fiduciary obligation to the client.
- Continuing Education – Complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years to maintain competence, demonstrate specified levels of knowledge, skills, and abilities, and keep up with developments in financial planning. Two of the hours must address the Code and Standards.

Item 3 Disciplinary Information
